MOORE—JACKSON

The historical church, the oldest Anglican Church in the Commonwealth—St. Luke's, Liverpool, was chosen by Mrs. Eva May Jackson, widow of the late Thomas Jackson, and fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woods, York Street, Fairfield, for her marriage to Walter, third son of the late Mr. J. Moore, and Mrs. Moore, of Francis Street, Fairfield, on Saturday, February 2. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gordon Smee.

The bride made a charming picture in a smart suit of hydrangea blue silk Shantung, hydrangea pink model hat and navy accessories.

After the service the guests were received by Mrs. V. Osborne (sister of the bride), at her home in York Street, Fairfield, where a sumptuous breakfast was served, buffet style. The beautiful wedding cake was made and decorated by the bride's sister Lily (Mrs. Windsor).

Many congratulatory telegrams were received from friends, including some in other States.

Later the happy couple left by car for Katoomba, where the honeymoon is being spent. They will make their future home at Camden Street, Fairfield.
